National Girl Child Day report

National Girl Child Day celebrations of Sri GVG Visalakshi College for Women was conducted through focused group discussion through Google meet on 24th January 2022 at 10.00 a.m. under the topic “Women Empowerment to promote Gender Equity”. The Secretary Smt. Sumathi Krishnaprasad, The Director Dr.J.Manjula, the Principal Dr. N.Rajeswari presided over the function. Dr.N.Lakshmi, College Union Advisor and Associate Professor of Commerce encouraged students to participate in an active way. Ms.C.Poornashree, College Union Chairman welcomed the virtual gathering. 17 students from various departments shared their strong points on gender inequality that women face throughout their lives from childhood to old age. They emphasized though there are many legal laws to empower women, still women are striving for self-esteem and equality. Many of them quoted lines of eminent poet Bharathiyar in their speech as “Mathar Thamai Illivu Seiyum Madamaiyai Koluthuvom” and also they mentioned about esteemed ideal women from great epics. The primary goal of the programme was attained through the enthusiastic participation and indomitable spirit of students. Around 332 students recorded their attendance as audience. This session was also telecasted live on face book. The Alumni of the college proudly appreciated the effort with gratitude. Eventually the celebration came to an end with the vote of thanks by Ms.C.Poornashree, College Union Chairman.
