The screenshot shows a presentation slide titled "Cash Flow" with the BSE logo in the top left. The slide features a large grey arrow pointing to the right. Inside this arrow are three blue rounded rectangular boxes: "Income", "Savings", and "Expenses". The "Savings" box is smaller and has a small 'y' symbol to its right. The "Income" and "Expenses" boxes are larger and positioned on either side of the "Savings" box. A black progress bar is visible at the bottom of the slide. On the right side of the screen, there is a small video thumbnail showing a man speaking, with the text "Right Coast Education" below it. The Windows taskbar is visible at the very bottom.

The screenshot shows a presentation slide titled "Why do we save?" with the BSE logo in the top left. The slide contains two main visual elements. On the left, there is an icon of two hands holding three colorful figures (red, green, blue) representing a family, with the text "Support to Family" below it. On the right, there is an image of a young child in a yellow graduation gown and cap, with the text "Child's Education" below it. A mouse cursor is visible on the right side of the slide. The Windows taskbar is visible at the bottom.
