Guest Lecture Report - Gender Sensitization - 26.06.2019

Dr.Sangamithra, Professor, Department of Economics, Bharathiar University gave a guest lecture on "Gender Sensitization and women health" on 26.06.2019. She started her speech with the importance of Economics and History for the development of the economy. She said history helps the students to understand the situations at present and moral contemplation.

Gender Sensitization (Time to change the mindset), Dr. Sangamithra said that discrimination against women and girls is a pervasive and long- running phenomenon that characterizes Indian society at every level. Male and female, each one has a peculiar quality. Empowering women would give a huge boost to our country.

She encouraged our students through her motivated speech that instinct quality should develop in every girl's heart. She insisted the students to develop the reading habits and suggested the books written by Dr.APJ.Abdul kalam and Swami Vivekananda in which various quoted were given to educate women, to develop confidence, to remove negativity from the mind and to take care of women's health etc., the number of students participated in the guest lecture is Two hundred and twenty (220).
