 Report of
 One Day Field Visit to Nelliampathy
 Date: 20.05.2022 Number of Students: 31
 Time: 6.00 am – 10.00 pm Number of Faculty: 5

- * Department of History offers 'Tourism' as Allied and Skill Enhancement Course. Hence to have field experience One day Educational Trip was arranged to Nelliampathy.
- * Nelliampathy is a hill station in Palghat District of Central Kerala. It was a two hours journey from the college. On the way the students enjoyed the Panoramic Mountain Ranges, terrains and lush green scenery.
- * As we travelled up in the hills, the first place to visit was Government Orange and Vegetable Farm (OVF) - a pollution free zone, an emerging tourist attraction. Different varieties of fruit based products are sold there. Students interacted with the officials and gathered information.
- * Then we drove straight through the coffee plantation located within the Poabs Organic Estates and reached Seetharkundu View Point. The amazing attraction is blessed with many Tea Estates, thick forest and spectacular aerial view - unimaginable with trees, farmlands, rivers, ponds, villages and roads down there thousands of metres below. A view from this place was astounding.

- * Next, we drove through AVT Tea plantations at Manallooru. On the way to Karappara waterfalls we visited a beautiful hanging bridge, an added attraction located over the rivulet linking tribal settlements in Karappara.
- * On the way back to our home town we halted at Pothundi Dam nestled at the foothills of Nelliampathy Hills. It's an impressive Master Piece of engineering constructs in the 14th Century. The stunning view of the serene landscape of the dam with hills in the reservoir's backdrop was a fantastic sight. After spending two hours here we started our return journey.

Outcomes:

The students came to know about

1. Organising a one day Trip.
2. Preparing an Itinerary.
3. Narrating the significance of a Tourist Spot.
