Extension Activity
Teaching Mathematics to Middle School Students
Academic year 2018-2019

Our III B.Sc Mathematics students taught Mathematics to middle school students in their own village as a part of their extension activity for the academic year 2018-2019. Each student took 2 to 5 school students. They conducted test in respective topics and evaluated. Every student submitted their report in note book, enclosing the student's test papers. Neraly 165 school students were benefited through this extension.
