Field trip to Salim Ali Centre for Ornithology and Natural History - APP. of Mathematics

06.01.2023

A field trip to Salim Ali Centre for Ornithology and Natural History was organised for I B.Sc. and II B.Sc. Mathematics on 06.01.2023. Accompanied by four faculty members, 59 students visited SACON.

To admire the beauty of nature and to know the applications of Mathematics in the Research which are done by the Scientists and Research scholars in the Centre.

Dr. Pramod, Scientist, SACON welcomed the gathering and delivered talk about the Center. He also explained how Mathematics is used in construction, solution and Analysis of the models in their area of Research (Ornithology). They arranged a trucking and it was really a very thrilling and new experience to the students and all enjoyed it.
