Former Secretary
Department of Science Technology

It has been a great experience meeting faculty and students in the GVG Visalakshi College for women. I met some interesting and motivated people. I am aware that resources are useful and necessary for growing research curiosity, but it's never limiting for an inspired mind. Let us hear where women in Science has attracted national attention. Let me wish that this college would lead from the front and emerge as a role model. Best wishes

Ramasamy
