III - BSc. Zoology.

Feed back. (Apiculture)

First, we thank our management and head of our department and Faculties who gave us wonderful opportunities to attend the one-day training on Tamilnadu agri-university. In that training we learned about Honey bees and their food habits, reproduction and its types. We learned how to handle the honey bee box. We saw their Honey bee products like honey, wax, etc. This training gave different experience and make interest in our field. At last, this training very useful and make us happy. Once again thanks for our management, head of our department and our Faculties.
