Report of Alumni Meeting

(2020-2021)

A virtual meeting is conducted on 20.01.2021 for the alumni through Google Meet. During the meeting the status of the alumni, and their occupation was taken into account. The alumni were proud to be the students of Sri GVG Visalakshi College for Women as their stay in the campus enhanced their potentials, and skills. Most of them are working as teachers and some of them are working as assistant professors. Most of them have become home makers. It was proposed to conduct more meetings in the future. It was decided to strengthen the alumni chapter at the local level. It was decided to contact number of alumni and whatsapp group is to be created. The alumni promised to extend their support in identifying them and enroll them. A request was made to the alumni to strengthen department library by their generosity and liberal contribution. Efforts were taken to identify the alumni who have become entrepreneurs. Some of them will be invited to deliver invited talks and motivational speech.
