LEGAL LITERACY AND LEGAL AWARENESS - A KEY TO EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN

Date: 21.12.2023

Time: 2.00 PM - 3.30 PM

Venue:

Objectives:

* To impart practical knowledge about the basic legal rights and remedies provided under various women related laws.

Violence against women and girls is one of the world's most prevalent Human Rights violation, taking place everyday and everywhere. It has serious short and long term physical and economic & psychological consequences on women and girls which preventing their equal participation in the society. Women's Studies Centre has organised Legal Literacy And Legal Awareness programme on 21.12.2023.

Resource Person 1

→ Advocate Mr. J Thambi Prabhakaran, B.Com, B.L has list out the various crimes faced by the young girls before marriage. Eve teasing, Rape, Molestation, Stalking, cyber bullying, non-consensual sexing, doxing, Acid attack etc.

→ The Resource Person also explained the significance of POCSO Act to the students.

Resource Person 2.

Advocate S. Mahalakshi has given her speech on Domestic Violence on Women. Madam has explained the types of violence occurred in the marital life of the women.

(i) Physical violence includes using physical force against the partner, such as slapping, hitting, kicking and beating.

(ii) Sexual violence includes forced sexual intercourse, emotional abuse like insults, belittling, constant humiliation, intimidation etc.

(iii) Controlling behaviour, including isolating a person from family and friends monitoring their movements and restricting access to financial resources, employment, education or medical care.

Finally this session was concluded with the availability of the act for protection women from domestic violence 2005 is the most recent piece of legislation.

Resource 3

The final session was handled by our proud alumni cum Advocate Mrs. M. Sathyavani has given her talk on harassment in the workplace and listed out the types like intimidating, hostile, humiliating environment, unwelcome forms of sexual conduct. Then women are asked for sexual favours. The resource person has asked the students to be bold enough to file a case against the employer without fear. She also suggested various laws available in the constitution to safeguard women at work place.

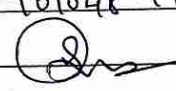

No. of Beneficiaries : 84

Outcome :

* Student's learnt the availability of laws related to the crime against women.

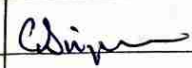

* Student's came to know that whom to approach ? How to approach ? in such situation.
