Women Studies Centre
Report on "women as agent of change in Social Entrepreneurship"

Women Studies Centre organised webinar on "Women as agent of change in social Entrepreneurship" on 02.06.2021. Ms. Sowmya Balakrishnan, Social worker, Coimbatore delivered her valuable ideas and views on social entrepreneurship. In her lecture, she explained about feminism – women have biologically reproductive capacity-women are change-maker. She addressed the difference between the service and work and the qualities of social entrepreneurs. She has covered the areas such as women role in reducing inequalities and poverty, food security, clear water and gender equality, integrated model of communication, how to ignore mediocre ideas and the role of partnership. About 85 students and 15 faculty benefitted in this virtual webinar.
