Message by the IQAC Coordinator

It gives me immense pleasure and a sense of pride to record my views in this edition. The news letter would be a snapshot of the activities and advancements of all associated with IQAC. We have taken up new responsibilities to keep up the good academic practices and to work further for academic excellence. Besides this we are moving to assess and ensure the quality of education to higher level through IQAC. It is very heartening to note that large number of teachers have not only contributed to quality teaching by their innovative practices but also working aside to reach the target through their contributions in all possible ways. Each one of them deserves our heartiest congratulations for their perseverance and commitment towards teaching. IQAC as per NAAC guidelines represents all opportunities which are emerging for the pace of development with Control, Competence, and Excellence in gearing up the fourth cycle of accreditation. I hope that the guidance and immeasurable help of our honourable Secretary and the Principal will support us in transforming all challenges to milestones.
