TOP NEWS OF THE YEAR

"MS UMA NANDHINI" TAMIL LITERATURE GIFTED TO SING DEVARAM AT NEW PARLIAMENT.

Srimathi Sumathi Krishnaprasad, the great-granddaughter of Shri G.V. Govindaswamy Naidu, has left an indelible mark in GVG's history. She transformed the institution, expanding it into a modern, two-story building with top-notch facilities. Her educational innovation integrated information engineering into academics, ensuring seamless ICT operations. She also nurtured sports talents, fostering national and international success among students

Established in 1952 by philanthropic founder Shri G.V. Govindaswamy Naidu, Sri GVG Visalakshi College for Women pioneers women's empowerment in Tiruppur. With 25 years of autonomy, it excels in academic rigor and is recognized with an A+ grade by NAAC, mentoring six colleges under the UGC Paramarsh Scheme. The curriculum integrates technology, offers skill-oriented components, and fosters experiential learning through partnerships with organizations like IBM and ICT Academy. Enrichment programs, sports, and a Women's Study Center contribute to holistic education, nurturing socially responsible citizens and agents of transformation.

Sri G.V.G. Visalakshi College for Women's IQAC ensures academic excellence through faculty programs, open forums for student-college communication, staff assessments for quality enhancement, and meticulous documentation of institutional activities. Continuous infrastructure monitoring guarantees a conducive learning environment. The IQAC remains pivotal, ensuring enduring quality and advancement in all aspects of the institution.
