FEED BACK ON M.A. ENGLISH LITERATURE SYLLABUS

OF
Department of English
Sri C. V. G. Visalakshi College for Women
Udumalpet

It is indeed honour to place my feed back on the PBI Syllabus framed by the Department of English of Sri. C. V. G. Visalakshi College for Women, (Autonomous) Udumalpet.

The duration of the course is two years and the syllabus is divided into four semesters. Each paper of the syllabus fulfill its objectives and time limit. The syllabus includes a comprehensive study of great and essential literary works. This broad study helps the students to gain literary knowledge and life skills.

The syllabus has been carefully designed in a such a way that it not only maintains a fine balance between language and literature but also maintains a balance between traditional and modern.

Fullfilling the UGC norms, the four semester papers provide a wide scope in comprehending the nuances of English literature to meet the challenges in competitive exams and teachership eligibility exams like NET/SET. Above than all, it serves as a basis for research <sup>and higher</sup> studies. Overall, the PBI English Literature Syllabus develops the need of the society and would be ready for employment in a variety of fields. Wish the team all success

With Regards,
E. Malathi
