Student Induction Programme

2024 - 2025

Topic: Legal Literacy

Resource

Person: Tr. R. Maheswaran & Trt. S. Vijayanarayanan
Advocate, Taluk Legal Services Committee
Udumalpet

K. Santhini B.Sc., LLB.
practicing Advocate, Palladam.

Objective:

To Create legal awareness among the students regarding various legal rights available in the Indian Constitution.

Advocates addressed the students on various rights :-)

Fundamental Rights: An Overview of the basic rights guaranteed by the Indian Constitution to all citizens.

Women's Rights: Detailed information on the rights specifically available to women, including laws for their protection.

Consumer Rights: Awareness about the rights of consumers and how they can protect themselves from exploitation.

Right Against Workplace Harassment: Information on the legal provisions to provide individuals from harassment in the workplace.

Right Against Domestic Violence: Insight into the laws designed to protect individuals, particularly women, from domestic abuse.

They also highlighted various laws protecting women against domestic violence and workplace harassment, supplemented with practical cases. Additionally, they were provided students with various helpline numbers, such as the child helpline, Women Helpline, State Education Helpline, Senior Citizens Helpline and Cyber Crime Helpline.

Outcome:

Students gained awareness of their legal rights and better equipped to apply this knowledge in real-life situations, such as protecting themselves from workplace harassment, consumer exploitation, and domestic violence.
