REPORT SOFT SKILLS THROUGH LITERATURE

HELD ON 17.05.2021

Department of English SF conducted an invited talk on Soft Skills Through Literature on 17/05/2021 by providing a link on Google Meet. The session began by the Welcome address proposed by Ms.P.Tamilselvi. Nearly 82 students participated. The chief guest Dr.L.Mahalakshmi discussed on soft skills as personal attributes that influence in work environment to interact with others. By mastering LSRW skills it is easier to form relationships with people to create trust and coordination, and it can also provide a platform to become a Team leader. Various genres in literature were discussed through Soft skills as important tool, because it will enable students to overcome the challenges they encounter in their adult life, as well as in working environment. So, mastering the universal language helps students learn, live and work better. It develops student's critical thinking. It expands student's language awareness as well. It was an interactive session and students clarified their doubts and expressed their opinions and feelings. The session ended with vote of thanks given by Mrs.D.Saranya.
