ANNUAL REPORT 2020 - 2021

The 69th annual report encompasses the accomplishments attained and newer heights reached by the Institution in the year 2020 - 2021. As an institution founded on the philanthropy of our benevolent founder Sri. G.V. Govindasamy Naidu, we empower women through quality education, providing holistic learning experience that results in intellectual transformation. Over the years, the honor and majesty of the college has reached sky-high. In the academic, it has acquired enviable fame, eminence and excellence.

We jubilantly proclaim the splendor attained by our institution in the year 2020-2021 and this has added more magnificence to the historical records of Sri G.V.G Visalakshi College for Women. To enrich the women of the region, a munificent personality, Smt.Sumathi Krishnaprasad our Secretary who has inherited the noble vision of the founder spearheads myriads of the activities of the college.

The achievements of the year 2020 – 2021 are now presented in a nutshell.

Scholarship Received:

- ❖ 731 Students have received scholarship for an amount of Rs. 25, 92,267.
- ❖ 95 distinguished experts from various disciplines were invited from all walks of life to deliver lectures, motivational talks and inspiring speeches. The objective of these meetings is to ensure a holistic personality development of the learners, for classroom lectures would promote a lopsided approach and the learners would not be able to emerge a full-fledged individual with social commitment.
