Birds Habitats, Survey techniques and Management
- Ms. Joel Soniya.

First of all I thank our Head of the department and our faculties who have organised this guest lecture for us. The guest lecture on Birds Habitats, Survey techniques and Management was very useful. In this session, we learned about birds and their types, habitat, food habits, characteristics and their economic importance. The session made us to improve our knowledge. This might be helpful for our future research projects. The overall session was very useful and knowledgable. Thank you
