

BEST PRACTICE 2

1. Title of the Practice: WOMEN EMPOWERMENT THROUGH FINANCIAL LITERACY

2. Objectives of the Practice:

- Empower the students to handle financial decisions.
- Educate on savings, financial goal setting and investments.
- Sensitize on financial issues and cyber-crimes.
- Provide a roadmap to pursue employment, entrepreneurship, and investment opportunities.

3. The Context:

- Students as prospective earners and managers of households contribute significantly to the upliftment of family and society.
- Proper streamlining of income and savings at household level is necessary for efficient financial short term and long term goal setting.
- Financial literacy enables to know the ideal timings, channels and methods of savings and investment by practice.
- Financial literacy educate students to manage debts due to pandemic.
- Fostering financial literacy empower young women, to make financial decisions for individual level upliftment and to contribute for the development of economy.
- Utilize the extended services of SEBI and financial intermediaries in promoting financial literacy.

4. The Practice:

- The commerce discipline of the institution has formulated policies to broaden the curricular learning by empowering women through financial literacy. Various programmes focused on
  - Opening of savings accounts.
  - Importance of KYC and PAN Card.
  - Earn while you learn scheme and entrepreneurial ventures.
  - Investment in schemes according to their financial goals.
- SEBI and its registered training companies sponsor investor awareness programs along with celebration of Global Money Week and World Investors Week.
- Two certificate courses sponsored by BSE were administered for 200 students for (10 hours each).
- SEBI trained empanelled 38 resource persons provided awareness on savings, investment and capital market.
- 88 investor awareness programmes were conducted for students and staff.
- The students are trained in certain investment schemes.

- Knowledge gained is applicable in practical life.

5. Evidence of Success:

- 1125 students were motivated to open and operate savings account on their own, and thereby avoided the risk of holding idle cash.
- Number of beneficiaries of the Financial Literacy Programmes:
  - Ayushman Bharat Health Account – 923
  - Sukanya Samridhi Yojana Savings Scheme and PPF Account – 20
  - National Pension Scheme – 04
  - ATAL Pension Yojana Scheme – 14
  - Demat and Share trading account – 10
- Motivated 40 students to enrol under paid internships to manage their financial needs.
- 25 residential students were benefitted in the "Earn while you learn scheme".
- 46 students in post covid financial crisis were guided to apply educational loans.
- Regular conduct of SEBI and Financial Intermediaries sponsored Investor Awareness Programmes resulted in strengthening the linkage.
- The National Institute of Securities Markets (NISM) honoured the Institution with four appreciation certificates and five appreciation certificates to the faculty coordinators during 2021-2023 continuing the legacy of MHRD:VISAKA award earned in 2017 for financial literacy.

6. Problems Encountered

- Since the students are not financially independent, outcome of awareness cannot be measured immediately. But it is expected to have great impact on financial planning as future income earners.
- Difficult to visualize the savings and investment options due to their age which attracts spending rather than saving.
- Initial hesitation to attend the programmes, but quality and number of programmes ensured a futuristic vision in the later stage.
